

Hebrews: The New Covenant - Juli Camarin

Icebreaker:

1. What is your favorite meal to cook and why?
2. If you could have an unlimited supply of one thing for the rest of your life what would you pick?

Hebrews 8:7-13

7 For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. 8 But God found fault with the people and said^[a]:

“The days are coming, declares the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

9 It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of Egypt,
because they did not remain faithful to my covenant,
and I turned away from them,

10 This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel
after that time, declares the Lord.

I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.

I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

11 No longer will they teach their neighbor,
or say to one another, ‘Know the Lord,’
because they will all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest.

12 For I will forgive their wickedness
And remember their sins no more.

13 By calling this covenant “new,” He has made the first one obsolete: and what is obsolete and outdated will soon disappear.

Read the above scripture, discuss and answer the following questions from Juli’s teaching:

- Will you give all your attention to Jesus or allow yourself to get sidetracked?
- What religious obligations are you leaving in your boots to hurt you?
- Are you carrying around the weight of your own guilt and shame, and will you let it go?
